Suppose our bodies grow tired, Under life's worry and care,

Our hearts are hardened with sorrow, Which, day after day, we must bear; What, though the journey looks gloomy Unbrightened by pleasure and love, The way which now we are treading, May have its ending above.

What the some friendships have ended In looks of scorn and disdain, Each day sees some treasure vanish We vainly strive to regain. A time will come, when so changes Will mar the pleasure we know,

When we will see, by Truth's brightness Things that were shadowed below. In Dreams.

GROWING BOYS.

Why the Government Prohibits Ca dets to Use Tobacco.

The use of tobacco by growing boys is so generally recognized as pernicious that it is extraordinary that more energetic measures are not urged upon those having the care of youth to prevent the habit. Already it has been prohibited in the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, in the United States Military Academy at West Point, in the Phillips Exeter Academy, New Hampshire, and in various other enlightened educational institutions.

This was not the result of prejudice or hobbyism. If any set of men are free from these vices of learning, it is ly from these, and particularly from Dr. cautiously.

Thanksgiving Proclamation. EXECUTIVE DEP'T, GOVERNOR'S OFFICE,)

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 8, 1882. In accordance with the proclamation of the President of the United States, I end to the people of the State of Ohio that they observe the 30th day of November, present, in prayer and thanksgiving. Let us, upon that day, unite in thanks giving to Almighty God fer the many blessings we enjoy through His good-ness and mercy. Let us thank Him, with humble hearts, for all the comfort, prosperity and happiness with which He has blessed and favored us; for the abundant harvests that have vitalized and enlivened all the avenues of trade and commerce, and made sure to the reward of enterprise and active effort. Let us thank Him that He has given u us free from dissensions at home, and that He has, for another year, crowned with His approval the great experimen of a government by the people, in uni versal freedom and equality. Let us praise Him that under His guidance we are still permitted to offer a home and a Bangs have been utterly discarded, and all the styles are meant to show off natural hair to the best advantage.
